SSON Webcast Explores the Business Value of APEX Analytix® FirstStrike® Software

- Features Case Study from Siemens Shared Services

GREENSBORO, N.C. – September 29, 2009 – A new webcast from the Shared Services & Outsourcing Network (SSON) highlights the business value of continuous monitoring for accounts payable errors and fraud using FirstStrike® software from APEX Analytix®.

The SSON webcast, “Siemens: A Case Study in Audit Recovery Success,” features Simona Darjan, accounting manager at Siemens Shared Services LLC, and Joe Collins, senior director of client value at APEX Analytix.

Darjan’s team uses FirstStrike® to systematically monitor transactions involving more than 80,000 vendors on various enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems.

“It’s an analysis that could not be accomplished manually,” she says. “We’re able to take accounts payable to the next level and drive a positive impact on cash and profitability.”

The webcast can be accessed from the APEX Analytix® homepage (www.apexanalytix.com) or directly from the SSON website (<http://tinyurl.com/m3hpxo>). SSON is a global community of more than 12,000 shared services and outsourcing professionals from more than 95 countries.
